

Biblical Studies Seminar – Semester 2 (2011)

- 21 January Professor A. Graeme Auld: "Generous Pluralism in an Unlikely Quarter? Joshua 22 in its Biblical Context"
- 28 January Professor N. T. Wright (St Andrews): 'Israel's Commission, Abraham's Reward: Re-reading Romans 2, 3 and 4'
- 4 February Professor Hans Barstad: 'What can we learn from the Book of Hosea about the history of the Middle East in the the 8th century BCE?'
- 11 February Dr David Reimer: TBA
- 18 February Dr. David Allen (Birmingham): 'Faithfulness in the things before God: Caleb Typology in the Letter to the Hebrews'
- 25 February Mr. Stephen Louy (PhD candidate): 'The Role of Persecution in Defining a First Century Christian Ethnos'
- 4 March Dr. Eyal Poleg: ' The Road to 1611: How the Bible as we Know it Came into Being'
- 11 March Professor Larry Hurtado: ' The Resurrection of Jesus as a Case Study in the Relation between the Historical Jesus and the Christ of Faith'
- 18 March Mr Sean Adams (PhD candidate): 'Character Representation in Acts in Light of Collected Biography'
- 25 March Ms. Rebecca Ye (PhD candidate): 'The Use of Isaianic "Hearing and Seeing" Motif in the Gospel of Matthew'