

CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF WORLD CHRISTIANITY SEMINAR PROGRAMME FOR SEMESTER 2, 2010-11

Seminars take place on Tuesdays at 4.00 p.m. in Room 1.07

- January 11     Dr Jack Thompson (University of Edinburgh) ‘Missionaries and the Magic Lantern: Education or Indoctrination in Nineteenth-Century Africa and Scotland’
- January 18     Nima Ghising (University of Edinburgh) ‘Liberating or Captivating? The Power of the Pentecostal Moral Programme’
- January 25     Sangdo Choi (University of Edinburgh), ‘Martyr or Invader: Interpretations of Rev R. J. Thomas’s Death in Korea’; and Jaekun Lee (University of Edinburgh), ‘American Southern Presbyterian Mission in Honam, Korea, 1892-1940: Identities, Encounters, and Transformations’
- February 1     Andrea Grant (St Hugh’s College, Oxford) ‘“Prepare the Bride of Christ to Meet the Groom”: Silence and the Construction of Diasporic Identity among Rwandan Pentecostals in Britain’
- February 8     Dr Anthony Reddie (The Queen’s Foundation, Birmingham) ‘Christianity Tu’n mi Fool: Deconstructing Confessional Black Christian Faith in Post- Colonial Britain’
- February 15    Joshua Broggi (University of Edinburgh) ‘Orthodoxy and the Disclosure of Hermeneutics in World Christianity’
- February 22    Dr James Carleton-Paget (Peterhouse, Cambridge) ‘Albert Schweitzer and Africa’
- March 1        Dr David Miller (International Christian College, Glasgow) ‘Choosing the Other - Christian Converts and their Significance in Understanding the Place of Christianity in Contemporary Japan’
- March 8        Dr Lesley Orr (University of Edinburgh), ‘“They Listen for the Voice of Scotland”: The Church of Scotland Constructing Africa at the End of Empire’
- March 15       Farhana Nazir (University of Edinburgh), ‘A Historical View of the Blasphemy Law in the Indian Subcontinent in the British Colonial Period (1858-1947)’