

University of Edinburgh
School of Divinity, New College
CROALL LECTURES
January 2011

Professor Bruce McCormack
Charles Hodge Professor of Systematic Theology
Princeton Theological Seminary

Abandoned by God: The Death of Christ in Systematic, Historical and Exegetical Perspective

- 17 January The Decline of Protestantism and the Perils of Penal Substitution
- 18 January The Incarnation as Saving Event: Theories Which Order the Work of Christ to a Metaphysical Conception of His Person
- 20 January Let Justice and Peace Reign: Theories Which Fail Adequately to Integrate the Person and Work of Christ
- 24 January After Metaphysics: Theories Which Order the Person of Christ to His Work
- 25 January The Cry of Dereliction: The Death of Jesus in Eschatological Perspective
- 27 January The Lord of Glory was Crucified: Reformed Kenoticism and Death in God

A drinks reception will be held following the first lecture on Monday 17 January. The lectures will be held in the Martin Hall, New College, School of Divinity, Mound Place, Edinburgh EH1 2LX. Each lecture will begin at 4pm.

ALL ARE WELCOME

<http://www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/divinity/>