

Religious Studies Seminar Series and Special Events 2012

Seminars normally take place on Wednesdays at 2-4 p.m. in Room 1.07 unless stated.

- 18th January Gary Slater (University of Oxford)
“Trajectories of C. S. Peirce’s Philosophical Theology: Reception History and ‘Evolutionary Love’”
- 30th January Special Joint Event with Asian Studies
“Living Buddhism Project”. TBC.
- 1st February Professor Linda Woodhead (University of Lancaster) 4-6pm
“Religious Change in post-war Britain: A Sociological Analysis”
- 15th February Dr. David Kim (University of Sydney; Visiting Fellow at the University of Edinburgh)
“The Cultural Ideology of Korean Diasporas in Reading a Religious Text”.
- 7th March Dr. Liu (Kunming University of Science and Technology; Visiting Fellow at the University of Edinburgh)
“Tathagatagarbha: Critiques and Responses”.
- 14th March Special Joint Seminar with Theology and Ethics
Professor Siddique (University of Edinburgh)
“Divine Unity in Revelation: Muslim and Christian Perspectives”
- 21st March Professor Callum Brown (University of Dundee)
“People of no religion: The demographics of secularisation in the English speaking world since 1900”
- 28th March Professor Lisbeth Mikaelsson (University of Bergen) 4-6pm
“The Spirit of New Age Capitalism”
- 4th March Religious Studies MSc Students will present dissertation topics.