¹ Grey Colin had been summoned to appear before the Council at the end of October 1565 when he was still in Killin. He returned to Balloch to write this letter of apology, but was in Strathfillan on 7 November 1565, GD112/1/161. The Council had issued a proclamation forbidding supplies from Glenorchy going to Argyll, 3 November 1565: RPC, I, 188-9.

² Katherine went to Court to plead Grey Colin's case and to mobilise their friends, see Introduction.
