

Date: 17 October [1570]

REF: GD112/39/11/16 (SHS ed No. 178)

Place: Balloch Castle

From: Katherine Ruthven, Lady Glenorchy (draft)

To: Ewin MacGregor

Address: To Ewyn MacGregor

Efter commendatiouns. I rassavit zour writting¹ fra yis berare makand mentioun yat ze had send ane writting to ye Lard my husband dissyrand ane assurance quhill zour messinger mycht speik ye Lard and siclyk dissyris me and my barnis to pass to ye wost end of ye loycht² to caus my husband to hest zow ane gud ansuer. As to yat I can nocht assuir zow instantlie quhan I ma pass yair quhill I send to my husband first and se gif it be his will and gif it be his will(sic) yat I pass and sall gang and gif him my gud consall yat he, ze and ye commoness ma haf quyatness sua if zour offeris be godle and according to ye Lard my husbandis honour. Ye rest to zour nixt adverteisment and sua fair ye will in ye Lord. From Ballocht ye xvii of October be xij horis.

¹ See [177].

² Probably Ilanran at the west end of Loch Tay.