

Date: n.d. [c. 15 October 1570]<sup>1</sup>

REF: GD112/39/11/15 (SHS ed. No. 177)

Place:

From: Ewin MacGregor

To: Katherine Ruthven, Lady Glenorchy

Address: To ane honorabill woman and ane weilbelovit maistres Lady of Glenourquhay

Maistreis I commend me to zow to lat zour Ladyschip to wit yat I have writtin to ye Laird to ye west heid of locht<sup>2</sup> and yis is ye effect yairof yat I dissyre assurance for aucht dayis quhill my messischer<sup>3</sup> and his speik togidder and I dissire zour Ladyschip to be yair and zour bairnis. And zour Ladyship to caus hest me my ansuer with yis berair. Nocht ellis bot ze to be gud as my trest is in zow. Ye eternall God have zow in his keiping. Be zowr freind and servand,

Ewin Makgregor

---

<sup>1</sup> Katherine's reply, 17 October 1570 [178].

<sup>2</sup> Probably Ilanran at the west end of Loch Tay.

<sup>3</sup> Messenger.