

Scotland Seminar 2008 'Working together with families?'

Wednesday 11 June
9.30am - 4.00pm
West Park Conference Centre, Dundee

Chaired by:

Claire Edwards – Parent, Director of SNIP and Chair of CCNUK Scotland Group

Keynote speaker:

To be confirmed

Other speakers and presentations will include:

- Caroline Selkirk, Director of Change and Innovation, NHS Tayside
  - CCNUK/Dumfries and Galloway participation project
  - Getting it right for every child and care coordination
- University of Edinburgh research findings into key working in Scotland

Interactive workshops:

Taster session on SNIP key worker training
CCNUK key worker standards
CCNUK resource pack – setting up a new service
Bright Start Nursery pack
Key Working A to Z

There will also be a variety of information stalls and excellent networking opportunities throughout the day.

Delegate fees: free places for parents/carers
£50 for members*
£60 for non-members***

*please note, there is no price increase from 2007!

For more information and booking forms, please contact Catriona MacGregor, CCNUK Scotland Development Worker, on 0131-229-8575 or by email at scotland@ccnuk.org.uk

Care Co-ordination Network UK (CCNUK) is a networking organisation that supports and promotes key worker and care co-ordination services for disabled children and young people, and their families, across the UK. CCNUK is an independent registered charity with its head office based in York. We work in partnership with families and professionals to ensure that all families have access to high quality care co-ordination.